

BREAKING THE SILENCE

We are committed to protecting the vulnerable and upholding justice for those who have been harmed.

Breaking the Silence is not limited to child abuse. As a church we are concerned for all people, regardless of age, who may be abused.

For more information or assistance
please contact:

Conduct Protocol Unit

Jon Flood | 02 9690 9325

jflood@pcnsw.org.au

Breaking the Silence covers:

- child abuse
- risk of significant harm
- reportable conduct
- sexual misconduct
- conduct that breaches the
Breaking the Silence Code of Conduct

It applies to all persons holding a position of authority within the church, including all ministers, home missionaries, deaconesses, licentiates, elders, paid employees, church workers whether paid or volunteers and all those working with children and young people.

Visit the website:

www.breakingthesilence.org.au

Information refers to Breaking the Silence 2015 Edition | Conduct Protocol Unit
Jericho Road | Presbyterian Church of Australia in New South Wales