

SHOWING CHRIST THROUGH DISABILITY INCLUSION

What does it mean to be a Christian with a disability? How can we welcome people with a disability into our church community in a better way? How can we encourage and support those who care for someone with a disability?

Rev. Jason Forbes helps us answer those questions and take action. Jason aims to raise awareness of disabilities, and to educate, equip, and encourage our churches to be more inclusive of people who have disabilities.

ABOUT JASON

As Jericho Road's Disability Advocate, Rev. Jason Forbes has a passion for equipping churches to respond to the needs of people with disabilities.

We believe that every person is made in the image of God, no matter their abilities, challenges or setbacks may be. Jason himself has Cerebral Palsy and through his lived experience, as well as his theological training, he speaks to why disability inclusion is so important for churches. In the words of Jason himself,

"The Gospel is inclusive, therefore churches should be inclusive."

MEET JASON SESSIONS

These sessions are a great first step for your church. Why not line up Jason to visit your Bible Study or Fellowship groups during the week or organise an evening event? During this time, Jason will share his testimony and experience living with Cerebral Palsy followed by a short talk and a Q&A time.

'LUKE14' WORKSHOPS

Luke14 is for everyone in the church to help them in their response to Jesus' command to 'invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind' (Luke 14:13).

Each workshop focuses on one aspect of disability, and can be tailored to meet the needs of each church.

We are always happy to have Jason visit. He is an inspiration to our church folk and very well admired and respected.
