Some children at Allowah may not be able to express themselves verbally and can be at risk of having their needs overlooked. Through my prayers, and devotions, I am reminded to treat the children with dignity, respect and love. Working here at Allowah is humbling.

When I think of Allowah, I often think of the Bible verses where Jesus teaches us about letting the children come to Him, and His teaching about caring for the vulnerable.

I may not be in a ministry role, but I do believe I am still serving, and it's an opportunity to care for the vulnerable... I hope my actions in caring for these children display God's love.

What does Allowah do?

Allowah provides around-the-clock nursing and medical care that many of these children require and parents struggle to find anywhere else. The children we support often require a high level of medical care and their individual needs and circumstances at the centre of our service delivery. Allowah gives kids the support they need in an environment that is so bright, loving and enriching that it truly is a place like no other.

Running a hospital for children with complex needs requires expensive resources, and your generous contribution could support hospital wards, therapies and keep activities and day programs running.
